Regulations of the event entitled "Sustainability Exchange"

§ 1 General information

1. The organizer of the "Sustainability Exchange" event, hereinafter referred to as the Event, is Łazarski University in Warsaw, represented by the International Programs Office.
2. The aim of the Event is to engage international students in the promotion of sustainable development solutions visible in their countries and to create lasting mechanisms enabling the transfer of the initiative into the hands of students.
3. The event is open to all students.
4. All students can take part in the competition.
5. The event takes place in the form of a on-site event and is organized on an annual basis.
6. The second edition of the Event will take place in the academic year 2024/2025.

§ 2 Purposes and forms of presentation

1. Students are given full freedom to choose a topic related to sustainable development in their countries.
2. Presentations may be made in one of the following forms:
 - a) Multimedia presentation - a presentation in the form of slides with images, charts or graphics presenting a specific issue of sustainable development,
 - b) Video recording - students can create short films or videos in which they present their topics. These may be documentaries, interviews with experts, or animations,
 - c) Interactive presentation - students can prepare interactive presentations that engage participants by asking questions or conducting mini-games or quizzes about sustainable development,
 - d) Practical activities - students may decide to present practical sustainable development activities, for example by presenting ecological products, demonstrating recycling activities, or showing how sustainable technologies work in their country,
 - e) Lecture - students can choose a traditional form of presentation in which they will talk directly about their topics related to sustainable development, using only supporting materials such as notes.
3. There are three prizes to be awarded:
 - a) Creativity Award - this award may be awarded for the most creative and innovative approach to sustainable development,
 - b) Inspiration Award - this award may be awarded for the presentation that most inspired event participants to act for sustainable development,
 - c) Insight Award - This award may be given for the most insightful and thorough approach to a specific sustainability topic.
4. Presentations will be assessed by event observers based on votes cast via <https://www.mentimeter.com/>
